WHY IS IT?

Editorial

Although the Fourth of July passed quietly in the village there were the usual surreptitious explosions of fireworks.

According to a village police officer as unofficially quoted most of the disturbance came from sections where people who ought to know better reside. The law against fireworks is not the doing of the village fathers, that is a statute made by the State Legislature in the interest of public safety and particularly for the safeguarding those who believe the only way to celebrate the Fourth is to let go with as much and as powerful explosives as they can lay their hands on.

But to get back to our anonymous police officer. One wonders why it is that some people set themselves above a law made for their own protection. But if they are the people who should know better then something was left out of their education.

TIGHTER CONTROL NEEDED

It is becoming more apparent that action is needed at Albany and Washington to correct some of the basic causes of high welfare cost and to strengthen the laws to protect against the distribution of public funds to persons with assets or ability to support themselves.

The Legislature and the Congress are slow-moving bodies, however. While these legislative bodies consider matters they deem of greater import, welfare costs have become the number one spending problem of counties in the State. In some counties, welfare costs amount to as much as half of the total county expenditures. A recent announcement from the State Welfare Department reports relief spending is still on the rise despite improved economic conditions and despite slightly reduced caseloads.

Not content to await legislation or congressional action, a growing number of counties are giving serious consideration to making studies of their local welfare spending problems. At least one county board of supervisors has given formal approval to a study to find out if everything possible is being done to hold down the relief rolls and what the results are of present welfare practices.

Local reviews and examinations of welfare administration and procedures, properly conducted, are most desirable.

Furthermore publicity of local relief rolls would be a powerful deterrent to both the granting and acceptance of relief, for welfare officers would think twice before making grants to those able to work and would throw a scare into chisellers. —Contributed

What Better Cup for a Hole in One

Williams B. La Venture of 3 Ardsley Terrace, member of the Irvington Zoning Board of Appeals, and also of the Ardsley Country Club, shot a unique hole in one on the morning of the Fourth of July on Ardsley golf course. Almost anyone can shoot a hole in one with a little luck but Mr. La Venture's hole in one was played into the lens of the spot light on the Irvington police car, which makes it historic.

Patrolman John Hannon was driving along Hudson Road at the wheel of the patrol car when Mr. La Venture, not aiming at all at the police car, let go with a perfect shot with the ball smashing through the bulls-eye of the spotlight and resting in the lamp itself. Whether Mr. La Venture or Patrolman Hannon was more surprised is not recorded, but the former did not receive a summons for damaging village property. He promised to make good without the least hesitation.

June Lockhart in Play at Mr. Kisco

The Westchester Playhouse presents June Lockhart in GRAMERCY GHOST, from July 14 through July 19. J. Cecil Holm has created a hilarious comedy about a girl and a ghost. The play is designed to please every member of the family.

A young girl inherits Nathaniel Coombs, which she thinks is an old cat or a dog. One evening the curtains blow apart and into the room steps not a cat or a dog but an attractive ghost who introduces himself as Nathaniel Coombs. The young lady naturally is disconcerted. A riot follows when the young lady's two suitors do not see Nathaniel as she talks to him. Her fiancé, a stuffy, unimaginative soul, is sure a stomach pump will dispell her hallucinations. The other suitor, an unconventional newspaper man, trust her and tries to prove who Nathaniel is. The ghost has watched Nancy for a long time and is happy to stick around and keep her company.

June Lockhart, who will play Nancy, is familiar to television audiences for her appearances on Robert Montgomery's "Lucky Strike Playhouse," "Celebrity

Young Sculptors Show Their Work

There will be an exhibition in the Library Display case in the Town Hall lobby of the work of four young people who completed the sculpture course held under the auspices of the Irvington Youth Center. These students; Anne Norris, Sally Rutter, Peggy Hastings and Paul Koskinen, built their own armatures, finished two full size heads; one from a plaster cast and one from a living model. They then cast the head done from life in plaster of Paris, successfully accomplishing the full cycle.

Carol Hensley posed for the class which was held in the basement of the Presbyterian Church and the plaster casting was done outside the studio of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Koskinen of Harriman Road.

HOW PROPOSED HALF MOON APARTMENTS WILL APPEAR WHEN COMPLETED

Announce Selling Program for Half Moon Apartments

Preview of Site and Plans to be Held This Weekend

Preliminary sketches of the Half Moon garden apartments, together with details as to the sale of individual apartments on a cooperative basis, were made public today by Morris and David Bogdanoff who plan to build the proposed 215-family development on the former Mairs, Calvert and Luke properties.

The announcement was made in conjunction with an invitation to the public to view the site of the development beginning with the coming weekend. In a statement made public in advertisements appearing today, the builders say:

"In keeping with our established practice, first opportunity is being offered our neighbors and friends, one week in advance of metropolitan advertising, to purchase these 2-story garden apartments, each with a separate entrance and an unparalleled river view in a 19-acre park."

The sketch of the first unit of the apartment group to be built on the south end of the property adjacent to West Clinton Avenue, shows an attractive series of two story structures of brick with gable roofs and second floor open porches over the entrances which are grouped in pairs. The buildings have a distinctive appearance of being individual in fact as well as in name because of the setbacks which eliminate the impression of a single straight line of buildings.

The initial cash payment required for a 4-room apartment is $950 and monthly charges, which include interest on the underlying mortgage, amortization of principal, taxes, gas, electricity, heat and inkeep of grounds is $75. The initial cash payment for 5-room apartments is $1,300 and $1,400, depending on the suite selected, and monthly charges are to be $94. On 6-room apartments the initial payment is $1,700 and $1,800 with monthly payments of $112. The amortization is based on a 40 year period. Each apartment is to be fully equipped with range, refrigerator and lighting fixtures.

In accordance with provisions of the Federal Housing Administration, preference will be given to veterans but there will be many apartments available for non-veterans. The F.H.A. has issued a commitment for the guaranty of a mortgage of $2,306,900 to finance the cost of construction, condition on the sale of 90 per cent of the apartment units.

Another Scholarship for Howard McCabe

Howard McCabe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McCabe, who was graduated as salutatorian of the Irvington High School senior class last month, has been advised by the State Education Department, that he is the winner of a four year scholarship for study in any recognized college in the state. The award was made to him as a result of a competitive examination open to high school students in the state. He is already the holder of a P.T.A. scholarship award and of a scholarship in Union University at Schenectady, N. Y.

A. C. Lord Resigns as Pilgrimage Director

Arthur C. Lord of South Cotuit street, after more than ten years of service as director of the semi-annual pilgrimages of the Westchester County Historical Society, has retired as chairman of the pilgrimage committee. He continues to serve as a trustee of the society.

Rev. Charles W. Baldwin of 5 Lincoln Place, Ossining, is the author of a feature article in the July issue of the quarterly Bulletin issued last week to more than 500 members of the society. Saint Mary's Church, Scarborough, is the subject of Mr. Baldwin's three page story. The writer is rector emeritus of Saint Mary's which opened for worship in December, 1839. According to Mr. Baldwin, the church received its name and some of its architectural features from Saint Mary's of Scarborough in Yorkshire.

Begin Suit to Upset Hatch-Metcalf Law

The Westchester Humane Society, Inc., announces that the Westchester County Dog Protective Association, Inc., consisting of the Central Westchester Humane Society, Inc., Westchester Shore Humane Society, Inc., and The Dog Owners' Association of New York State, Inc. in conjunction with Mrs. R. Alger Sawyer of Scarsdale and Mrs. Henry Zwirner of Briarcliff Manor have filed a summons and complaints for a declaratory judgment and permanent injunction against the Commissioner of Health of New York State in connection with the Hatch-Metcalf animal seizure law. This action will be returnable in the Westchester County Supreme Court in White Plains.

The complaint is based on constitutional grounds, and has nothing in common with the recent suit brought by the New York Voters League against Vivisection. The society asks that all animal owners and taxpayers who are interested in upholding the provisions of both the federal and state constitutions, designed to protect the rights of the individual, give their support and approval to this action by communicating with Mrs. R. Alger Sawyer, 13 Cuckworth Road, Scarsdale.

But They're Not Good in Westchester

Why not take wooden nickels? Residents of Cobleskill, N. Y., now busy preparing for their Bicentennial celebration July 22-26, ask themselves that question and come up with one answer—why not, indeed?

So now, in addition to growing beards and wearing appropriate headgear, the people of Cobleskill are passing the wooden nickels with impunity.

As a matter of fact, the right on these nickels is held by the

The Fourth Passes Calmly in Irvington

Aside from two or three youths who were nabbed by village police officers in the act of setting off fireworks, the Fourth of July passed without incident in Irvington. Matthiessen Park was filled almost to capacity and Memorial Park also accommodated a fair sized holiday crowd.

Traffic on Broadway was heavy, especially in the late afternoon and evening but it moved steadily and there were no jams out of the ordinary caused by the changing of traffic signals.

On the whole it was a quiet and peaceful day.

Teen-Agers Dance at School Friday

Summer social dances for teen-agers and adults of Irvington begin tomorrow (Friday) night. This is the first of four dances scheduled for alternate Friday nights during July and August. The future dates are July 25, August 8, and 22.

The dances will take place out of doors, weather permitting, in the parking area in the rear of Irvington High School. In case of rain the school gymnasium will be used. Dancing will start at 8:30 P.M. and end 11:00 P.M. Admission is twenty-five cents per person or forty cents per couple.

A feature of these dances which should be of added interest to the teen-agers is that their own Irvington High School Dance Band will supply the dance music.

The band has been practicing diligently for this summer engagement. All that is needed for the success of this phase of the recreation program is your support.

Education Board Ends Fiscal Year With Big Surplus

Change in Payment of Summer Salaries Leaves Cash Balance

The Irvington Board of Education completed its fiscal year on June 30 with a surplus of $34,659.7, according to its annual financial report made public today.

Total expenditures for the year were $253,912.45 as against a budget estimate of expenditures of $312,733 made in May 1951. The reduction in disbursements was due to the fact that the board was advised several week ago by State auditors contrary to the practice of prior years, vacation payments to teachers could not be made in a lump sum at the closing of school but should be made month by month in July and August for those months, respectively.

Because of this the balance in hand on June 30 included the funds that had been appropriated in the 1951-52 budget for the July and August salaries. Inasmuch as the notice from the State Department of Audit and Control was received after the 1952-53 budget had been adopted, this sum was not reflected in the "balance on hand" item in that budget. As a result of the state department ruling instructional service for the year is on a ten month instead of a twelve month bases and for the month of June 1951-52 amount.

On the whole it was a quiet and peaceful day. The report of this hearing shows payments of $253,912.45 for teacher salaries, $3,574.98 for principal's salary, $9,599 for assistant principal's salary, $3,300 for salaries of assistants in principal's office and $1,154.02 for office expense. Textbooks cost $2,001, supplies used in instruction $7,873.17 and other miscellaneous $21,217.51. Substitute teachers received $2,002.25, adult education instructors $1,957.50 and $9,498.95 was paid to the Board of Cooperative Services for special service teachers.

Operation of the three school buildings in the system cost $27,886.07 amounted to $16,911.42. Fuel cost $5,091.33, water $261.05, light and power $2,528.70, supplies $1,567.43 and services other than personal $1,526.14.

Maintenance of the physical plants cost $19,173.69. General repairs entailed expenditures of $5,741.11, repairs of heating, plumbing and lighting equipment $5,364.45 and upkeep of grounds $357.98, repair and replacement of furniture and instructional equipment cost $6,710.15.

The expense of auxiliary agencies was $24,624.04. This included pupils and bus supervisors and Library $2,125.62 of which $1,770.80 was for salary. Health service cost $4,938.58 with $1,200 of this for medical inspection, $3,692.31 for nurse service and supplies, and $46.27 for dental supplies.

Fixed charges including pension contributions of $16,848.42, insurance premiums of $5,964.11, taxes of $1,031.90, and rent of Memorial Park and of the Dobbs Ferry H. S. gymnasium of $1,322, totalled $25,241.43. Debt service including $5,000 for bond redemption, for interest and $1,133.48 for refund of taxes $807.50 amounted to $6,940.98. Capital outlay covering such items as improvements of grounds, new furniture and equipment and library books amounted to $5,151.01.

Cash receipts of the district were $296,010.72 and added to this were credits of $23,918.15 for retirement and pension allowances by the state to bring the total available receipts to $319,928.42. The district had $6,223.77 on hand at the beginning of the fiscal year on July 1, 1951. Taxes received from the town tax collector amounted $249,903. Public moneys received from the Commissioner of Finance totalled $36,277.71. The Board of Cooperative Service contributed $2,823.79, tuition from adult education classes was $382 and regular tuition $300. There were miscellaneous receipts of $45.

John McWhidder of the Bronx is spending his vacation at the home of his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Cushman of North Covent street.

County Beaches Safe Says Health Head

The recognized public and private beaches of Westchester on Long Island Sound and the Hudson River are "perfectly safe" for bathing, County Health Commissioner William A. Holla asserted today.

Dr. Holla said that laboratory tests of the waters are made at least weekly during the bathing season, and more frequently if condition warrant.

"As long as the beaches are safe, we will say so," Dr. Holla said. "If we find the water is bad, we will close them."

MODERN YOUTH

Dorothy Dix's syndicated column of advice to lovers, parents, etc. (written shortly before her death), revealed a tragic story, accompanied by Miss Dix's remarkably accurate analysis. A distraught mother wrote: "I have a very attractive daughter who has had a good environment all her life, and devoted parents; yet she does things and has ideas that distress her father and me very much. "She resents our every attempt to control her, and calls us 'old-fashioned' when we try to keep her from doing things of which we disapprove, such as frequenting the apartment of two men. I tell her that can lead to no good, and her answer is 'Oh, Mother, can't you come up-to-date?' "What can I do about it?" Dorothy Dix replied: "You might tell your daughter it isn't virtue and decency that are 'old-fashioned'—it is wrongdoing. "There hasn't been a new sin invented since the fruit-eating experience in the Garden of Eden, and it would be amusing, if it were not so tragic, that the young people of today think that the history of the world who ever strayed off the straight and narrow path. "Everybody has always been doing it. There isn't a 'frank sex' novel hot from the press whose plot isn't foreshadowed in the Ten Commandments, nor a vice that wasn't old when its warnings were thundered from Sinai. "Girls think they show how ultra-modern they are when they boast about how many cocktails they can drink, and about getting lit up like a Christmas tree at a party, but there is nothing new in a drunken woman. Generation after generation has seen the poor, bleary-eyed, straggled-haired, frousy creatures stumbling along the streets, muttering to themselves or lying in the gutter.

"Girls think they show how adventurous and high-spirited they are when they throw their caps over the windmill and have affairs with married men and other men who can't or won't marry them. But there is nothing new in immorality. . . . It is all old stuff." Dorothy Dix hit the nail on the head. Sin is as old as the Garden of Eden and as modern as a television newscast. But notice that Miss Dix didn't reply to the most important part of the anxious mother's letter: "What can I do about it?" To answer that, one must turn to the Word of God, the Bible. God faced that very question in dealing with the first sin in the Garden of Eden; He has faced it in dealing with sinful men ever since. And so He has laid down eternal principles which govern the discipline and destination of sinners. Listen to what God says regarding such sins: "Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap. For he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption" (Galatians 6:7, 8). "For they are the first people in all mans 6:32). "The soul that sinneth, it shall die" (Ezekiel 18:4). God's eternal principle is that sin not only enslaves by its powder, but also penalizes with eternal death. But God did not stop there. He realized that man could not break the power of sin by himself and escape the penalty. And so He graciously offered the solution to the problem of sin in the sacrifice of the Lord Jesus Christ on the cross. From the Garden of Eden, God declared that "without shedding of blood there is no remission (of sin)" (Hebrews 9:22); and so Jesus Christ shed His blood for the remission of the penalty of our sins and to break the power of those sins over us. Here, then, is the answer to that mother's question. If that daughter, and anyone, will put her trust in the Lord Jesus Christ as her personal Saviour; the power of sin over her will be broken and its penalty removed. "For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord" (Romans 6:23).

"My sin was old-fashioned, my guilt was old-fashioned, my God's love was old-fashioned, I know. And the way I was saved was the old-fashioned way. Through the blood that makes whiter than snow." Tract Club of America

Selfish men may possess the earth; it is the meek only who inherit it from the Heavenly Father, free from all defilements and perplexities of unrighteousness.

"But in '39 I built a whole house for the same money!"

Most homes that sold for around $7500 in 1939 must now be priced at $15,000 or more. And many other things you buy today have doubled in cost. But not telephone service.

The cost of living has jumped 89% in the past thirteen years. Yet the price of telephone service has risen an average of only 15%—more for some customers, less for others, of course, depending on the type of service and the use made of it.

Service is faster, clearer, easier to use. Many phones have been added—which means you can call more people and they can call you. Customers in the average community can now reach twice as many telephones without a toll charge. And expansion and improvements never stop.

Few things today favor your family budget as does the telephone. Few things are as big a value. When value goes up but the price stays low, it's a good measure of a bargain.

PHONE SERVICE UP ONLY 15%
 Average increase since 1939

PHONE SERVICE BIG BARGAIN. Today's cost-of-living figure shows a jump of 89% since 1939. Yet the price of telephone service has risen an average of only 15%—depending on the type of service and the use made of it. It's one of today's best buys.

Heartbreak House at Westport Playhouse

Bernard Shaw's engrossing drama, "Heartbreak House," will be the next bill at the Westport County Playhouse Monday through Saturday, July 14-19, when Beatrice Straight will be seen in the starring role. Featured in the Shaw play, directed by Basil Langton, will be Philip Bourneuf, Frances Reid and Peter Cookson.

The production originated at the Brattle Theatre, Cambridge, Mass., where Boston Critics were unanimous in their praise of the seldom-produced Shaw play. "Heartbreak House," expounds many of Shaw's favorite opinions on the state of England, society and the relationship between men and women and was written by the playwright in the Chekhov manner.

In "Heartbreak House," Shaw created the character of Captain Shotov in a manner that is reminiscent of the late playwright's personality. Mr. Bourneuf portrays the character in a Shavian beard, pointing up the parallel. Miss Straight (Mrs. Cookson) and Miss Reid (Mrs. Bourneuf) play the captain's daughter, while Mr. Cookson portrays the troubled son-in-law.

Performances of "Heartbreak House" will be at 8:40 nightly Monday through Saturday, with matinees at 2:40 p.m. Wednesday and Friday.

Fourteen states have laws curbing the sale of harmful antifreeze, reports the Automobile Club of New York. Solutions containing salt or petroleum can cause extensive damage to both the engine and cooling system.

North Elmsford Sewer Bids Vary

Five bids for the sewer installation project in the North Elmsford Sewer District, received by the Town of Greenburgh Council are being studied by Dan C. Nolan, Jr., town engineer.

of Yonkers. The other bidders were Tibbits Construction Corporation of Yonkers, $263,248, DeMarco and Ciccone of White Plains $265,386; Frank Bracalello, Inc., Scarsdale, $274,448 and San Marco Construction Company of Hartsdale, $335,629. All these offers specified the use of vitrified pipe and alternate bids were also received calling for transite pipe. Citing residential developments in the area, Police Chief John F. Sheridan urged the board to ask the State Traffic Commission to reduce the speed limit on Hill Avenue in Fairview, 50 MPH to 30 MPH. Wallace O. Banker, fair-Knollwood Civic Association, made a similar request covering Knollwood and Grasslands Road. Town Clerk William H. Dorn was directed to ask State Traffic Commission for reduced limit on all highways.
