1. The owners of all Condominium Units in the Condominium shall be members of the Association, and no other persons or entities shall be entitled to membership, except as provided in paragraph 5 of this Article IV.

2. Membership in the Association shall be established by the acquisition of a fee title or fee ownership interest in a Condominium Unit in the Condominium, whether by conveyance, judicial decree or otherwise, and the membership of any party shall be automatically terminated upon his being divested of all title to, or his entire fee ownership in, any Condominium Unit, except that nothing herein contained shall be construed as terminating the membership of any party who may own a fee ownership interest in two or more Condominium Units, so long as such party shall retain fee title to, or fee ownership interest in, any Condominium Unit.

3. The interest of a member in the funds and assets of the Association cannot be assigned, hypothecated or transferred in any manner, except as an appurtenance to his Condominium Unit. The funds and assets of the Association shall be subject to the limitation that the same be expended, held or used for the benefit of the membership and for the purposes authorized herein.

4. On all matters on which the membership shall be entitled to vote, there shall be only one vote for each Condominium Unit in the Condominium. The votes may be exercised or cast by the owner or owners of each Condominium Unit in such manner as may be provided in the Bylaws hereafter adopted by the Association. Should any member own more than one Condominium Unit, such member shall be entitled to exercise or cast one vote for each Condominium Unit he owns in the manner provided by the Bylaws.

5. Until such time as the Condominium is submitted to condominium ownership by the recordation of the Declaration, the membership of the Association shall be comprised of the Subscribers to these Articles of Incorporation, and in the event of the resignation or termination of any Subscriber as a member of the Association, the remaining Subscribers may nominate and designate a successor member. Upon submission of the Condominium to condominium ownership by recordation of the Declaration, the Subscribers' rights and interests as members of the Association shall automatically terminate; and the Condominium Unit owners within the Condominium, which shall mean in the first instance the Developer as the owner of all Condominium Units, shall be entitled to exercise all of the rights and privileges of membership in the Association.

6. The presence at a meeting of persons entitled to cast 33 1/3% of the votes of the members shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of the members. If a quorum is present, the acts approved by a majority of those present at the meeting and entitled to vote on the subject matter shall constitute the acts of the member.

ARTICLE V

The Association shall have perpetual existence.

ARTICLE VI

The affairs of the Association shall be managed by a President, a Vice President, a Secretary and a Treasurer, and such additional Vice Presidents, Assistant Secretaries and Assistant Treasurers as the Board of Administration may designate from time to time. (A Corporation Not For Profit)

I. Identity. These are the Bylaws of HIDDEN SPRINGS CONDOMINIUM ASSOCIATION, INC. (the "Association"), a non-profit Florida corporation, organized pursuant to Chapters 617 and 718, Florida Statutes, for the purpose of administering HIDDEN SPRINGS CONDOMINIUM, a condominium of lands lying and being situate in Seminole County, Florida.

1. Office. The office of the Association shall be at the premises of the condominium or at such other place in Seminole County, Florida as may be designated by the Board of Administration.

2. Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Association shall be the calendar year.

3. Definitions. The terms used in these Bylaws shall have the same definitions and meaning as those set forth in the Declaration of Condominium, unless otherwise indicated herein.

II. Members.

1. Qualification. The members of the Association shall consist of all of the record owners of Condominium Units to the extent that the Developer owns a unit it shall be a member of the Association. Each Condominium Unit shall be entitled to one vote.

2. Change of Membership. Change of membership in the Association shall be established by recording in the Public Records of Seminole County, Florida, a deed or other instrument establishing record title to a Condominium Unit in the Condominium and delivering to the Association a true copy of such instrument, the owner designated by such instrument thereby becoming a member of the Association. The membership of the prior owner shall be thereby terminated. The Association may issue certificates of membership.

3. Voting Rights. The members of the Association shall be entitled to cast one vote for each Condominium Unit owned by them. The vote of a Unit shall not be divisible.

4. Exercise of Voting Rights.

(a) Designation of Voting Representative. If a Condominium Unit is owned by one person, his right to vote shall be established by the record title to his Condominium Unit. If a Condominium Unit is owned by more than one person, the person entitled to cast the vote for the Condominium Unit shall be designated by a certificate signed by all of the record owners of the Condominium Unit and filed with the Secretary of the Association provided, however, that where a Unit is owned by husband and wife they may elect to be governed by Section 4 (b) (ii) hereof. If a Condominium Unit is owned by a corporation, the person entitled to cast the vote for the Condominium Unit shall be designated by a certificate of appointment signed by an officer of the corporation and filed with the Secretary of the Association. Such certificate shall be valid until revoked or until superseded by a subsequent certificate or until a change in the ownership of the Condominium Unit concerned occurs. A certificate designating the person entitled to cast the vote of a Condominium Unit may be revoked by any owner thereof upon written notice to the Association.

(1) Effect of Failure to File Certificate.

(i) Generally. Unit Owners who were required but failed to file a certificate as provided above shall not be considered voting members for purposes of determining whether quorums exist at membership meetings and shall not be permitted to vote at meetings on any issue.

(ii) Ownership by Spouses. If a husband and his wife who own a Unit have not filed a certificate designating one of them as a voting member, the presence (in person or by proxy) of either or both of them at a membership meeting shall be considered the presence of a voting member for purposes of determining whether a quorum exists at the meeting. If a husband and his wife have failed to file a certificate designating one of them as a voting member and only one of them is present at a membership meeting (in person or through representation by proxy), the vote of the present spouse shall be considered the vote of a voting member. If both of them are present (in person or through representation by proxy), the vote of either or both of them on any given issue voted upon at that meeting shall be considered the vote of a single voting member unless they are unable to concur in how to vote on the issue, in which latter case they shall lose their right to vote on such issue at that meeting.

5. Approval or Disapproval of Matters. Whenever the decision of a Condominium Unit owner is required upon any matter, whether or not the subject of an Association meeting, such decision shall be expressed by the same person who would cast the vote of such owner if at an Association meeting, unless the joinder of record owners is specifically required by the Declaration of Condominium, the Articles of Incorporation, or these Bylaws.

The annual members meeting shall be held on the date, at the place in Seminole County, and at the time, determined by the Board of Administration from time to time, provided that there shall be an annual meeting no later than thirteen (13) months after the last preceding annual meeting. The purpose of the meeting shall be to elect the Board of Administration and to transact any other business authorized to be transacted by the members. The annual meeting may be waived by unanimous agreement of the members in writing. The first annual meeting must be within twelve (12) months from the date that the Declaration of Condominium is recorded in the Public Records of Seminole County, Florida.

2. Special Members Meetings. Special members meeting shall be held whenever called by a majority of the Board of Administration and must be called by the Board of Administration upon receipt of a written request from members entitled to cast 30 percent of the votes of the entire membership.

Such notice shall be in writing, shall be posted at a conspicuous place on the Condominium Property and shall be furnished to each member at his address as it appears on the books of the Association and shall be mailed and posted not less than fourteen (14) days nor more than forty-five (45) days prior to the date of the meeting. Proof of mailing shall be given by affidavit of the person giving the notice. The Post Office certificate of mailing shall be retained as proof of such mailing. Notice of meeting may be waived before or after meetings.

4. Quorum. A quorum at a meeting of the members shall consist of persons entitled to cast 33 1/3 percent of the votes of the Association. The acts approved by a majority of those present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall constitute the acts of the members, except where approval by a greater number of members is required by the Declaration of Condominium, the Articles of Incorporation, or these Bylaws. The joinder of a member in the action of a meeting by signing and concurring in the minutes thereof shall constitute the presence of such member for the purpose of determining a quorum.

Proxies may be made by any person entitled to vote and shall be valid only for the particular meeting designated therein and any lawful adjournments thereof and must be filed with the Secretary before the appointed time of the meeting or any adjournment thereof. Every proxy shall be revocable at any time at the pleasure of the Unit Owner executing it, and in no event shall any proxy be valid for a period longer than ninety (90) days after the date of the first meeting for which it was given. Each proxy shall specifically set forth the name of the person voting by proxy, the name of the person authorized to vote the proxy for him, the date, time and place of the meeting for which the proxy is given and, if a limited proxy, the items which the holder of the proxy may vote on and the manner in which the vote is to be cast.

2. Election of Directors. The Board of Administration named in the Articles of Incorporation of the Association shall serve until their successors are duly elected and qualified. The Board of Administration shall be elected at the annual meeting of Association members. There shall be no cumulative voting for Directors. The persons receiving the most votes for such positions shall be the Directors. A Director may be removed at any time with or without cause, upon the affirmative vote of a majority of the entire membership of the Association called for such purpose or by the vote or agreement in writing of a majority of all Unit Owners. Provided, however, that until a majority of the Directors are elected by the members other than the Developer of the Condominium, neither the first Directors of the Association nor any Directors replacing them nor any Directors named by the Developer shall be subject to removal by members other than the Developer. The first Directors and Directors replacing them may be removed by the Developer.

3. Vacancies. If a vacancy in the position of Director shall come about as a result of the removal of a Director by the members, such vacancy shall be filled by the members at the same meeting wherein such vacancy is created. Notice of any meeting in which assessments against Unit Owners are to be considered for any reason shall specifically contain a statement that assessments will be considered and the nature of such assessments.

7. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Directors may be called by the President and must be called by the Secretary at the written request of one-third of the Directors. Not less than 3 days notice of the meeting shall be given personally or by mail, telephone or telegraph, which notice shall state the time, place and purpose of the meeting.

8. Waiver of Notice. Any Director may waive notice of a meeting before or after the meeting and such waiver shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of notice.

9. Quorum. A quorum at Directors' meetings shall consist of a majority of the entire Board of Administration. The acts approved by a majority of those present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall constitute the acts of the Board of Administration, except where approval by a greater number of Directors is required by the Declaration of Condominium, the Articles of Incorporation, or these Bylaws.

10. Adjourned Meetings. If at any meeting of the Board of Administration there be less than a quorum present, the majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum is present. At any adjourned meeting any business which might have been transacted at the meeting originally called may be transacted without further notice.

11. Presiding Officer. The presiding officer of Directors' meetings shall be the President. In the absence of the President, the Directors present shall designate one of their number to preside.

The foregoing rights of indemnification shall be in addition to and not exclusive of all other rights to which such Director or officer may be entitled.

VII. Fiscal Management. The provisions for fiscal management of the Association set forth in the Declaration of Condominium shall be supplemented by the following provisions:

1. Accounts. The funds and expenditures of the Association shall be credited and charged to accounts under the following classifications as shall be appropriate:

(a) Current Expenses. Current expenses shall include all funds and expenditures to be made within the year for which the funds are budgeted and may include a reasonable allowance for contingencies and working funds. The balance in this fund at the end of each year shall be applied to reduce the assessments for current expenses for the succeeding year or to fund reserves.

(b) Reserve for Capital Expenditures and Deferred Maintenance. Reserves for capital expenditures and deferred maintenance shall include funds for repair or replacement required because of damage, depreciation, or obsolescence and for maintenance items that occur less frequently than annually. These accounts shall include, but not be limited to, roof replacement, building painting, and pavement resurfacing. The amount to be reserved shall be computed by means of a formula which is based upon estimated life and estimated replacement cost of each reserve item.

2. Budget. The Board of Administration shall adopt a detailed budget for each calendar year which shall show the amounts budgeted by accounts and expense classifications and which shall include the estimated funds for the foregoing reserves; provided, however, reserves shall not be required if a majority of the members of the Association present at a duly called meeting of members, determined for a specific fiscal year to provide no reserves or reserves less adequate than required hereby. A copy of the proposed budget shall be mailed to the Unit Owners not less than thirty (30) days prior to the meeting at which the budget will be considered, together with a notice of that meeting, which shall state that such meeting shall be open to all Unit Owners. If a budget is adopted by the Board of Administration which requires assessments against the Unit Owners in any fiscal or calendar year exceeding 115% of such assessments for the preceding year, then upon written application of ten percent (10%) of the Unit Owners, a special meeting of the Unit Owners shall be held upon not less than ten (10) days written notice to each Unit Owner, but within thirty (30) days of the delivery of such application to the Board of Administration or any member thereof, at which special meeting the Unit Owners may consider and enact a revision of the budget, or recall any and all members of the Board of Administration and elect their successors. In either case, unless the Declaration or Condominium or Articles of Incorporation shall require a larger vote, the revision of the budget or the recall of any and all members of the Board of Administration shall require a vote of not less than a majority of the whole number of votes of all Unit Owners. The Board of Administration may in any event propose a budget to the Unit Owners at a meeting of members or by writing, and if such proposed budget be approved by the Unit Owners at the meeting, or by a majority of their whole number by a writing, such budget shall not thereafter be re-examined by the Unit Owners in the manner hereinabove set forth nor shall the Board of Administration be recalled under the terms of this Section. In determining whether assessments exceed 115% of similar assessments in prior years, any authorized provisions for reasonable reserves for the repair or replacement of the Condominium Property, anticipated expenses by the Association which are not anticipated to be incurred on a regular or annual basis, or assessments for betterments to the Condominium Property shall be excluded from the computation. Provided, however, that so long as the Developer is in control of the Board of Administration, the Board shall not impose an assessment for a year greater than 115% of the prior fiscal or calendar year's assessment without approval of a majority of the Unit Owners.

3. Assessments.

(a) Annual Assessments. Assessments against the Condominium Unit Owners for their share of the items of the budget shall be made for the calendar year annually in advance on or before December 20th preceding the year for which the assessments are made. Such assessments shall be due in 12 equal monthly payments, one of which shall come due on the first day of each month of the year for which the assessments are made. If an annual assessment is not made as required, an assessment shall be presumed to have been made in the amount of the last prior assessment and monthly payments thereon shall be due upon the first day of each month until changed by an amended assessment. In the event the annual assessment proves to be insufficient, the budget and assessments therefor may be amended at any time by the Board of Administration. The unpaid assessment for the remaining portion of the calendar year for which the amended assessment is made shall be due on the first day of the month next succeeding the month in which such amended assessment is made or as otherwise provided by the Board of Administration. Until the first annual assessment shall be determined by the Board of Administration of the Association, assessments shall be as set forth in the operating budget attached hereto as Exhibit A.

(b) Special Assessments. Special assessments shall be due only after thirty (30) days notice is given to the Unit Owners concerned, and shall be paid in such manner as the Board of Administration or the Association may require in the notice of assessment.

(c) Acceleration of Assessment Installments Upon Default. If a Unit Owner shall be in default in the payment of an installment upon an assessment, the Board of Administration may accelerate the remaining installments of the assessment upon notice to the Unit Owner, and the then unpaid balance of the assessment shall be due upon the date stated in the notice, but not less than five (5) days after delivery of the notice to the Unit Owner, or not less than ten days after the mailing of such notice to him by certified mail or certificate of mailing, whichever shall first occur.

4. Accounting Records For Each Unit. The Association shall maintain accounting for each Unit which records shall include but not be limited to the record of all receipt and expenditures and an account for each Unit designating the name and current mailing address of the Unit Owner, the amount of each assessment, the dates and amounts in which the assessments come due, the amount paid upon the account and the balance due.

5. Financial Reports. Within sixty (60) days after the end of the fiscal year the Board of Administration shall mail or furnish by personal delivery to each Unit Owner a complete financial report of actual receipts and expenditures for the previous twelve (12) months. The report shall show the amounts of the receipts by accounts and receipts classifications, including, if applicable, but not limited to, the following:

- (a) Cost for security;
- (b) Professional and management fees and expenses;
- (c) Taxes;
- (d) Cost for recreation facilities;
- (e) Expenses for refuse collection and utility services;
- (f) Expenses for lawn care;
- (g) Cost for building maintenance and repair;
- (h) Insurance costs;
- (i) Administrative and salary expenses, and
- (j) General reserves, maintenance reserves and depreciation reserves.

6. Depository. The depository of the Association will be such banks and/or savings and loan associations as shall be designated from time to time by the Directors and in which the monies of the Association shall be deposited. Withdrawals of monies from such accounts shall be only by checks signed by such persons as are authorized by the Directors.

7. Fidelity Bonds. Fidelity bonds shall be required by the Board of Administration from all persons handling or responsible for Association funds. The amount of such bonds shall be determined by the Directors. The premiums on such bonds shall be paid by the Association.

8. Initial Working Capital Contributions. The initial working capital contributions, if any, made to the Association by the Developer's immediate grantees, may be used by the Association for any of its purposes, including current expenses, and the same shall not be segregated or reserved.

9. Commencement of Assessments. The initial Board of Administration shall have the absolute discretion to commence assessments as of a time determined by them.

VIII. Parliamentary Rules. Robert's Rules of Order (latest edition) shall govern the conduct of Association meetings when not in conflict with the Declaration of Condominium, the Articles of Incorporation, or these Bylaws.

IX. Amendment. These Bylaws may be amended by vote of a majority of the members entitled to vote at a meeting called for said purpose. Proposals to amend existing Bylaws shall contain the full text of the Bylaws to be amended; new words shall be inserted in the text underlined, and words to be deleted shall be lined through with hyphens. However, if the proposed change is so extensive that this procedure would hinder rather than assist the understanding of the proposed amendment, it is not necessary to use underlining and hyphens as indicators of words added or deleted, but, instead, a notation must be inserted immediately preceding the proposed amendment in substantially the following language: "Substantial rewording of Bylaw ____ for present text."

X. Association Seal. The seal of the Association shall have inscribed thereon the name of the corporation, the year of its organization, and the words "non-profit" or "not-for-profit". Said seal may be used by causing it or a facsimile thereof to be impressed, affixed, reproduced or otherwise.

XI. Liability in Excess of Insurance Coverage. In any legal action in which the Association may be exposed to liability in excess of insurance coverage protecting it and the Unit Owners, the Association shall give notice of the exposure within a reasonable time to all Unit Owners who may be exposed to the liability and they shall have the right to intervene and defend.

XII. Roster of Unit Owners and Mortgagees. Each Unit Owner shall file with the Association a copy of the deed or other document showing his ownership. The Association shall maintain such information in a booklet entitled "Owners of Units". A Unit Owner who mortgages his Unit shall notify the Association of the name and address of his mortgagee and shall file a copy of the note and mortgage with the Association. A Unit Owner who satisfies a mortgage covering a Unit shall also notify the Association thereof and shall file a copy of the satisfaction of mortgage with the Association. The Association shall maintain such information in a booklet entitled "Mortgagees of Units".

XIII. Lease of Units. Each Unit Owner who leases his Unit, whether or not the approval of the Association is required with respect to such lease, shall provide the Association with such information as the Association may reasonably require with respect to his lessee and shall include in the lease as a condition and term of such lease the agreement of lessee to abide by the provisions of the Declaration of Condominium, these Bylaws and the Rules and Regulations, as well as any other instrument which may be binding upon Unit Owner.

XIV. Construction. Whenever the masculine singular form of pronoun is used in these Bylaws, it shall be construed to mean the masculine, feminine or neuter, singular or plural, whenever the context so requires. Should any of the covenants herein imposed be void or become unenforceable at law or in equity, the remaining provisions of this instrument shall, nevertheless, be and remain in full force and effect.

XV. Captions. The captions herein are inserted only as a matter of convenience and for reference, and in no way define, limit or describe the scope of these Bylaws or the intent of any provision hereof.

The foregoing was adopted as Bylaws of HIDDEN SPRINGS CONDOMINIUM ASSOCIATION, INC. a corporation not for profit under the laws of the State of Florida, at a meeting of the Board of Administration held on the ____ day of _____, 1983.
