Early Fall in the Lakes & Mountains

Fall in New Hampshire brings images of trees starting to show off their autumn colors, wood fires on cool evenings and crisp, fragrant apples. We've compiled a list some of our favorite places to visit and things to do in the Lakes and Mountains of NH.

Apples picked fresh from the tree are a true delight. Sweet, crunchy and juicy, bursting with flavor not found in apples bought in a typical grocery store. There are no lack of orchards in New Hampshire so we've picked a few local favorites to highlight.

Cardigan Mountain Farm, 1540 Mt Cardigan Rd, Alexandria, NH

PYO apples and fresh cider available. While in the area visit the Cardigan Mountain Country Store, 231 Lake Street in Bristol. A joint effort that has grown to become one of the most trusted local markets in the area showcasing products from Cardigan Mountain Orchard and other local farms and craftspeople. Browse our old fashioned store for quality gifts made by talented people from our community at affordable prices. Did we mention fresh homemade donuts?!!

Smith Orchard, 184 Leavitt Rd, Belmont, NH

Smith Orchard has been owned and operated by Wende and Rob Richter since 1986. The Smith Orchard has heirloom apple trees, first planted in 1929. They offer hot dogs, apple cider and free popcorn for pickers. And on September 22 and 29th enjoy live music!

DeVylder Farm, 563 Pleasant Valley Rd, Wolfeboro, NH

Visit the charming village of Wolfeboro, the "Oldest Summer Resort in America", and while there, stop by this hidden gem for PYO apples, cider and farmstand produce.

When planning your day trip think about visiting a covered bridge or two along the way. One of our fa-avorites is the Durgin Bridge in Sandwich, NH. If you go, plan to stop by the Sandwich Creamery. It is a true back country road excursion, known largely to locals, and well worth the drive.

Leaf Peeping in the Lakes and Mountains

Leaf season starts in mid to late September with peak usually in early to mid October. There is no better place to view the splendor than the Lakes Region, White Mountains and Mount Washington Valley.

Try this scenic by way leaf peeping tour on the Kancamagus Highway (affectionately known as the Kanc). Start on Route 112 and travel from Conway to Lincoln as 112 passes through part of the White Mountains Trail and the White Mountain National Forest. This byway offers colonial history and forest ecology experiences along the way at the Russell Colbath Historic Site and Forest Discovery Trail, making it one of our favorites. Want to sit and relax while viewing? Try a cruise on the Mount Washington for leaf peeping around Lake Winnepesaukee or take a step back in time on the Conway Scenic Railroad and see the foliage and dramatic vistas of the Mount Washington Valley from the train, running on tracks laid in the 1870s. In Conway, after your train ride, stop by Zeb's for a real old fashioned country store experience!
