What Some Of Our Agents Say:

I am so thankful for meeting Orna and becoming part of Elite Residential. I always knew that real estate was my passion, but Orna has inspired me to go beyond my limits and think outside the box. She is always there for me with any question that I may have (and I have a lot). She is a great teacher, mentor, person, and friend. I am truly lucky to be a part of Elite Residential Realty!

Neta Dadon

"I chose Elite Residential because of Orna, she is honest, knowledgeable, organized, trustworthy and a highly ethical individual. She is always available when I need her. I can call her with a question in the middle of the night or weekend and she always is pleasant and has an answer for me. She is very professional and always motivates me and brings out the best in all of her team. She is simply the best!"

Doris Benlevy

"When I was 'shopping' around for a Broker, I really had no idea what that meant. I had no idea that I needed a mentor, a mother, a teacher and a friend. All of these things I found when I met Orna Ered of Elite Residential Realty."

Francine A. Weiner,

"From the moment we met, I knew that your interests were of helping other people first, that is saying a lot for a real estate brokerages. You are always there to counsel, give advice, you let agents come up with their own ideas all without ever laying judgments. You like to take the team approach, but also lead as well. In terms of marketing, you are always looking to move forward in today's super-fast age of technology."

Dave Markowicz,

"I really enjoy working at Elite Residential Realty for many reasons! I've been in the business a while and have worked with other brokers in the past. Orna Ered is an exceptional and motivating broker to work for. The support, communication and teamwork between the broker, TC, marketing coordinator and other realtors is very motivating and helpful. This is a firm that cares about one another, always up to date with the changes and technology. I personally have grown and improved tremendously since I joined the team. Over time I learned that I can really rely and trust my broker and the team. Can't say that about too many other brokers but when you feel like this at work, then that motivates you to take your business to higher levels!
