CLIENT TESTIMONIAL

Each and every member of Hal Sweasey's team treated us with helpfulness and respect. From our initial meeting with Hal & Lindsey, through the closing and moving into our new home, we felt both comfortable and secure. This is meant as high praise through sometimes difficult and trying challenges.

Lindsey Horn, our sales specialist, is deserving of the highest praise. Lindsey was consistently on top of the entire process, dealing with the many interfaces, removing stumbling blocks, meeting deadlines and providing wise counsel as we made decisions. We ^{are} most pleased with the services and treatment provided.

We thank the Hal Sweasey team and truly feel they are not only very capable but worthy of our recommendation as well as our friendship.
