

Common Interest Community Board
COMMON INTEREST COMMUNITY ASSOCIATION RESALE CERTIFICATE

Section 55.1-2310 of the Resale Disclosure Act in the Code of Virginia requires this standard resale certificate.

The unit being purchased is in a development subject to the Virginia Condominium Act, the Virginia Property Owners' Association Act or the Virginia Real Estate Cooperative Act. Properties subject to these acts are considered "common interest communities" under the law and are governed by common interest community owners' associations ("association"). Units in common interest communities are subject to the Virginia Resale Disclosure Act that requires disclosure of information about the common interest community and its association on this resale certificate.

Under the Resale Disclosure Act, the Common Interest Community Board establishes the fees that may be charged for preparation and delivery of the resale certificate. No association may collect these fees unless the association (i) is registered with the Common Interest Community Board; (ii) is current in filing the most recent annual report and fee with the Common Interest Community Board pursuant to § 55.1-1835, § 55.1-1980, or § 55.1-2182; and (iii) provides the option to receive the resale certificate electronically.

Important Notice for Purchasers

The contract to purchase a unit in a common interest community association is a legally binding document. The purchaser may have the right to cancel the contract after receiving the resale certificate.

The purchaser is responsible for examining the information contained in and provided with this resale certificate. The purchaser may request an update of the resale certificate from the association.

On May 8, 2023, the Four Seasons at Historic Virginia Community Association, Inc. was served with a copy of a lawsuit filed by an adjacent landowner, Southgate Business Center, LLC. The case is styled Southgate Business Center, LLC v. Board of Supervisors of Prince William County, et.al., Prince William County Circuit Court, Civil Case No. CL 23004165. The lawsuit is a declaratory action seeking a court interpretation of the obligations of Prince William County and the Association with respect to Proffer 3(c) for the Association. That specific proffer concerns an obligation of the original Declarant (now assumed by the Association) to dedicate land for the possible extension of Van Buren Road North. The terms of the disputed proffer state that the dedication will occur when requested by Prince William County (County) or the Virginia Department of Transportation (VDOT). No such request has been made by either the County or VDOT. Van Buren Road North abuts a portion of the common areas of the Association. Prince William County is also a Defendant in this litigation. At this time, no demand for damages has been made and insurance appointed legal counsel for the Association will be vigorously defending the litigation. A complete copy of the court file in this matter is available for review at the Prince William County Circuit Court, 9311 Lee Ave # 3 Floor, Manassas, Virginia 20110 Case No. CL 23004165.
